Saltash May Fair Committee

27th March 2024

FAO: Saltash Town Council

I am writing in support of the funding application from Tamar Trotters for trophies to be presented at the Half Marathon, 5K Run and Fun Run at Saltash May Fair.

Since bringing the May Fair back to Fore Street and Longstone Park, the May Fair Committee has worked to extend and enhance the community offer on the Sunday of the May Fair weekend. Tamar Trotters have been an outstanding partner in this. Their attention to detail in the organisation of the races is impeccable.

The financing of the races is a discrete unit handled in entirety by Tamar Trotters, although expenditure for items such as medical services and toilets are shared with the May Fair Committee to reduce the overall financial burden on the two organisations.

Here are some of the benefits of the races:

- Community groups are given a donation in return for volunteering as marshals, thereby offering local groups the chance to raise funds
- Training for the Fun Run in school settings promotes wellbeing in Saltash children
- The presentation of trophies boosts pride and self-confidence
- Runners in the Half Marathon come from various parts of Cornwall as well as England, raising the profile of Saltash and boosting footfall to our town
- Expenditure on medical services etc. is shared with the May Fair Committee, reducing the overall costs for May Fair

Thank you for considering this funding bid from Tamar Trotters. Your support will not only strengthen the resources available to them, but will also reaffirm the town's commitment to supporting initiatives that enrich the lives of residents.

Treasurer, Saltash May Fair Committee
