Co-option Policy

This policy sets out the procedure to be followed when co-opting members to fill a casual vacancy within the Town Council ensuring compliance with relevant legislation.

Templates included in the appendix:

- Appendix A: Notice of a Casual Vacancy
- Appendix B: Co-option criteria
- Appendix C: Co-option eligibility declaration
- Appendix D: Application form
- Not included but to be sent with the Application Pack is the STC Privacy Notice

Background

s.87(2) of the Local Government Act 1972 requires a local council to give public notice of casual vacancies.

Casual Vacancy

A casual vacancy occurs when:

1. a councillor fails to deliver their declaration of acceptance of office at the proper time; or
2. a councillor resigns; or
3. a councillor dies; or
4. in the case of a councillor who is disqualified by virtue of a criminal conviction, under section 34 of the Localism Act 2011, the expiry of the period for making an application or appeal, or if an appeal or application has been made, the date that any such application or appeal process comes to an end;
5. on the date of a report or certificate of an election court that declares an election void;

6. a person ceases to be qualified to be a councillor for a reason not mentioned above; or
7. a councillor fails to attend a meeting for six consecutive months (section 85 of the 1972 Act).

Cornwall Council is notified of the vacancy and will post a formal Notice of Vacancy. The notice will be displayed for fourteen days during which ten members of the parish can request (in writing) that an election takes place. Cornwall Council will then organise the by-election.

If no election is called or following the call for an election no candidates stand, the Town Council will then fill the seat by co-option.

NOTE: if the vacancy falls within six months before the date when the councillor in question would have regularly retired (e.g. four days after the next ordinary election), a by-election will not be held but the Town Council may, but need not, co-opt a member to fill the vacancy. It must still give public notice of the vacancy.

Vacancies after an ordinary election

Section 21 of the Representation of the People Act 1985 provides that where an insufficient number of candidates is validly nominated at an ordinary local council election to fill the vacancies on the council, those who have been validly nominated are automatically elected as councillors.

Provided that those elected constitute at least a quorum (three or one third of the total number of councillors, whichever is the greater), the council may co-opt any person(s) to fill the vacancy(ies).¹ There is no statutory requirement² to give public notice of the vacancy(ies) before exercising the power of co-option. However, in practice this may be a sensible way to attract possible candidates and demonstrates transparency.

The co-option process should be completed within six weeks of the new council taking office (four days after the election).

¹ Where the power of co-option is not exercised within 35 working days, Cornwall Council may exercise powers to hold a further election or take other appropriate action to fill the vacancy(ies).

² s.21(2) Representation of the People Act 1985

Eligibility for Co-option

A person is eligible to be co-opted provided he is qualified to be a councillor³ and is not disqualified by the s.80 of the 1972 Act.

Eligibility criteria:

1. they are an elector for the parish; or
2. has resided in the parish for the past twelve months or rented/tenanted land in the parish; or
3. has lived within 3 miles (direct) of the parish.

There are certain disqualifications for election of which the main are:

1. holding a paid office under the local authority;
2. bankruptcy
3. having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three months, without the option of a fine during the five years preceding the election; and
4. being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal practices.

- should declare a prejudicial interest and withdraw from the meeting.
- Each candidate (in alphabetical order) will be given five minutes to speak - introducing themselves to the council, giving information on their background and experience and explaining why they wish to become a member of the Town Council.
 - After the presentations Councillors may ask questions of the candidates before proceeding to the vote.
 - Each Councillor present has one vote per vacancy to be filled. The Chairman has the casting vote (Standing Order 2r). For a candidate to be successful they will need to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast at the meeting. If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an absolute majority in the first round of voting, the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out. Further rounds of voting will take place until a candidate has an absolute majority.
 - A successful candidate signs Acceptance of Office and immediately becomes a Councillor. They may then take their place at the table.

After the meeting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Town Clerk notifies Electoral Services of the new Councillor appointed. • Declaration of Interests paperwork to be completed within 28 days • Administration office to issue induction pack and undertake all necessary administration processes.
Where insufficient candidates come forward for co-option	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The vacancy will be re-advertised and the process continue until an appointment is made.
