

To receive a report on previous Town Crier uniforms and consider any actions and associated expenditure

Background

The late Mr Brian Whipp, who was the town's Town Crier for many years, donated several items of Town Crier livery and a wooden stave with silver top to the Town Council.

The livery consists of:

Child's Town Crier livery overcoat with removable cape

The items are currently stored, along with the civic regalia, in the safe room and are not in use. Saltash Heritage have confirmed they would be happy to accept the items for use in future displays and to preserve them as part of the town's civic history. Other items of Mr Whipp's are in the care of the museum. No contact details were able to be located for the family of Mr Whipp.

Recommendation

Members are asked to consider approving the transfer of items free of charge to Saltash Heritage for use in future displays.

End of report.
