Question: Write your question only, clearly and concisely, no person may submit more than one question, and no member of the public may speak for longer than 3 minutes. Every year Travellers descend on Saltash, they ruin council owned land e.g. rubbish, human and dog feces, damaged pitches. This has happened on Warfelton field and Saltmill. The travellers cause anti-social behaviour (abuse to local residents and children) and break the law (steal from shops). What measures are Saltash Council doing to prevent this from happening again?
Representations and Evidence: Add representations/evidence to support your question.
