Royal Albert Bridge & Tamar Bridge

2

Spanning the River Tamar, the Tamar and Royal Albert Bridges are iconic engineering landmarks connecting Cornwall and Devon.

The Tamar Bridge supports the flow of over 20,000 vehicles each day, while the Royal Albert Bridge continues to carry trains.

Victoria Gardens

3

A charming public space established in 1897 to commemorate Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee, Victoria Gardens features a rose garden in memory of the late Queen Elizabeth and the King's Oak, planted to mark the coronation of King Charles. With its central location and plentiful benches, Victoria Gardens offers a perfect space to rest and reflect.

Ferryman Sculpture & Turner Painting

4

Honouring over 900 years of ferry crossings, the sculpture by John Forster features brass panels etched by local artists, illustrating memories of the ferry before it was replaced by the road bridge in 1961. Nearby, a reproduction of a painting by JMW Turner, who visited Saltash in 1811, captures the bustling shoreline, with boats, packhorses and people along the muddy shore.

Tincombe Nature Reserve

5

Spanning over 12 hectares, this green space offers a mix of woodland and meadows, perfect for nature lovers and walkers. A boardwalk guides visitors through the marshy areas, making it easy to explore without getting your feet wet. The reserve is teeming with wildlife, from newts and toads to the Great Spotted Woodpecker, with its black and white feathers and vivid red markings.

Statues of Ann Glanville & Isambard Kingdom Brunel

6

Ann Glanville (1796–1880) is celebrated for her strength as a rower, leading her all-female gig crews to victories against male teams across Europe. Gig rowing remains popular in Cornwall, with the Saltash-based Caradon Pilot Gig Club often out training on the river. Nearby, the statue of Brunel (1806–1859) pays tribute to the visionary engineer who shaped the connectivity of Saltash.

Longstone Park & Saltash Bowls Club

7

Longstone Park is a spacious green area offering scenic, expansive views towards Kit Hill and Dartmoor. Popular with dog walkers, it has plenty of room for picnics and is the venue for live music at the annual May Fair. The park is also home to Saltash Bowls Club, a welcoming place where beginners and experienced players come together to enjoy the sport.

Library Hub

8

Located on Plougastel Drive, Saltash Library Hub is in a Grade II listed building with a roof that cleverly resembles an open book. Managed by Saltash Town Council, the hub provides a wide selection of books for all ages, as well as access to computers and free Wi-Fi. It hosts a range of community events including workshops, book clubs and children's activities.

Brunel Bust

9

Visible from the slip road as you come off the Tamar Bridge, the bust of Isambard Kingdom Brunel commands a striking view of the Royal Albert Bridge, a masterpiece of Victorian engineering completed in 1859. This enduring tribute highlights Brunel's visionary designs, which revolutionised transport and forged vital connections between communities.

Jubilee Pontoon

10

A popular waterfront location, the pontoon offers a picturesque setting and acts as the embarkation point for the seasonal ferry that links Saltash with Plymouth's Royal William Yard. Board the ferry and you'll be treated to stunning views of the Royal Albert and Tamar bridges from below, offering a whole new perspective on these impressive engineering landmarks.

Saltash Heritage Museum & Elliott's Store

11

Step into Elliott's Store on Lower Fore Street, and it feels as though time has stood still since 1971, when Frank Elliott closed his shop rather than embrace decimalisation. Just a stone's throw away, the expertly curated Saltash Heritage Museum offers a fascinating look into the town's history. The Museum's research room is the perfect place for family history inquiries.

Town Centre

Fore Street home to a wide selection of independent shops and a mix of commercial businesses including the Post Office, offering a range of services to meet your needs.

The Banking Hub, located on Lower Fore Street, provides easy access to face-to-face cash and banking service, ensuring essential banking needs are met in the heart of the town.

Ashtorre Rock

13

Nestled beneath the Royal Albert Bridge, Ashtorre Rock is a welcoming riverside café run entirely by volunteers. Throughout the year, the Centre hosts a variety of social activities and exhibitions. Open every day 10 til 4, except Christmas Day, Boxing Day and New years Day. At the annual Regatta, the beach next to it becomes the starting point for the hugely popular and highly entertaining Cardboard Boat Race.

Saltash Leisure Centre

17

Offering high-quality fitness and leisure activities, Saltash Leisure Centre features a 25m swimming pool, a fun pool with slides, a gym with state-of-the-art equipment and a variety of fitness classes, including Circuits and Yoga. After your workout, you can relax at the Poolside Café, which serves freshly made hot and cold food in a family-friendly atmosphere.

Blue Plaque Trail

Explore the town's history through the Blue Plaque Trail, a self-guided tour of key figures who have shaped Saltash. One prominent name is William Price Drury (1869 -1949), a Royal Marine officer and playwright. His novel Eight Bells was inspired by the discovery of a Royal Marine's remains in the River Tamar, a mystery Drury helped solve. Information available from Saltash Guildhall/Saltash Heritage.

Churchtown Farm Nature Reserve

14

Covering 61 hectares, the Reserve is a peaceful wildlife haven, home to diverse habitats that support creatures including butterflies and hedgehogs, as well as birds like skylarks and linnets. As you wander along the paths, you'll be treated to views of the imposing Norman ramparts of Trematon Castle on the skyline, evoking the grandeur and history of its past.

Cornish Cross & Elwell Woods

18

An iconic piece of art on the Saltash skyline that proudly welcomes people to Cornwall, the Cornish Cross stands at the top of Elwell Woods. Over 19 metres tall, it is a stunning sculpture by artist Simon Thomas. After admiring the cross, you can enjoy a leisurely stroll through the peaceful little gem that is Elwell Woods.

Brunel Green, Jubilee Green & Waterside Green

Saltash boasts several scenic waterfront spaces that provide the perfect setting for relaxation and community activities. Among these, Brunel Green, Jubilee Green and Waterside Green stand out for their stunning views over the River Tamar. Each green is a hub of community life, where nature, history, and social gatherings come together.

Memorial Peace Garden

15

A tranquil space honouring those who have served and sacrificed in conflict, the garden sits opposite the war memorials in the Church of St Nicholas and St Faith - an impressive Norman building with buttresses that have stood for over 800 years. Featuring an information board on Saltash during World War I, the space offers the opportunity for reflection and a quiet hope for lasting peace.

Mary Newman's Cottage

19

This charming 16th-century cottage believed to have been the childhood home of Mary Newman, the first wife of Francis Drake. With its authentic features and period details, it offers a fascinating glimpse into Tudor life. The picturesque garden provides stunning views over the River Tamar, making it a peaceful spot to reflect on the rich history of this location. Entry is free of charge, donations welcome.

Public Conveniences

Saltash provides well maintained public conveniences free for use, ensuring accessibility and comfort for residents and visitors. Three are located in the town centre at Longstone Park, Belle Vue Road and Alexandra Square. A fourth is at the Waterside, beneath the Royal Albert Bridge. There is also an accessible toilet available at the station located within the Trackside Café and waiting room.

Railway Station & Isambard House

16

Saltash railway station is a key transport hub and welcoming gateway to the town. Named after engineer Isambard Kingdom Brunel, the station building offers versatile event spaces with Wi-Fi, making it an ideal venue for various occasions. It also features a public waiting room and toilet, available when the Trackside Café is open—a perfect spot to watch trains and enjoy views of the Royal Albert Bridge. For hire details, contact the Town Council.Royal Albert Bridge.

Saltash Guildhall

A focal point of civic life since the 18th century, this elegant venue blends heritage and functionality, hosting community events, meetings and exhibitions. Whether you're looking to hire the Guildhall, attend a Town Council meeting or make an appointment to view the stunning Saltash Chronicles embroidery, the Guildhall offers a welcoming space for all.

Car Parks

Saltash has plentiful parking. The two car parks at Belle Vue Road and the one at Culver Road are conveniently situated for shopping. Alexandra Square car park is near the railway station.
