Will Council please consider all the evidence available as befits a fair, competent and reasonable organisation, when it deals with Agenda Item No: 26 re Remembrance.

Saltash Remembrance and the Council Civic Service/Act of Remembrance location is of particular significance to those of us long-standing Saltash families who lost loved ones in War, and Armed Services 'Veterans' who saw comrades lose their lives. I represent both. I do not think that it is asking too much for Council to manage such events as fairly as possible.

I have researched this as a special personal and professional project, 'a labour of love' with the aim of uncovering the truth regarding the Civic Service location, and how it has been managed – or otherwise, over the years. My sources include Council minutes, Heritage, newspapers and individuals, and even individual recollection. I have collected and collated the facts and evidence with the necessary diligence, which should enable Council to consider implementing a fair, legitimate and objective policy – something it has simply never done for over 50 years. I understand that I am the only person to hold such data.

I make an offer now to Council to share the results of my hundreds of hours of research on this topic, to help ensure that you have the right information and evidence upon which to take a properly – informed decision in the interests of the Saltash community. Do take it up.
